

Ring Of Fire, Atlantis

Atlantis

Ancient Mysterious
Lost in the red mist of time
Pillars of hercules
Leads to the city of light
Your golden temples I see
Walls made of jewels
And two sacred pools of peace
Bursting with light
Like a thousand suns
How could you just disappear under the sea!

Searching for Atlantis
Searching for the city of gold
Danger and illusion
Atlantis forbidden city of old

City of giants and garden of eden it's said
Are you hiding or are you the realm of the dead
I still smell your perfume so sweet
Elysian fields
And thick fertile forests so deep
Your holy mountain has fallen
Now fire and water
Your dark secrets will keep
