

Ring Of Fire, Keeper Of The Flame

In a tower that's high on a mountain
That nobody knows 'cause it's so far away
Lies the house of the keeper of fire
Forever he watches the magical flame
Keeping the faith day and night
Always defending from evil
The warrior rides...

Through wind and rain
Keeper of the flame
Still untamed
He'll never change
Keeper of the flame
It's his fate
Keeper of the flame

The dark forces gathered for battle
The king and his horses they started to ruin
When there's a thundering fire from the mountain
Chasing shadows of midnight right into the sun
No time for turning
There was no time to get ready to fight
Everything burning completely
There was nowhere to hide

Through wind and rain
Keeper of the flame
Still untamed
He'll never change
Keeper of the flame
It's his fate
Keeper of the flame
