

Ringo Starr, I Think Therefore I Rock And Roll

A happy man I did encountered said to thyself be true one and one is only one until you become one with you everywhere you look is lovely if love is what you choose to see nothings hard as you can make it.

Its as easy as one, two, three heres my philosophy.

And he said:
to be or not to be
I dont care
the question is are you alive out there it dont take brains
just heart and soul
I think, therefore I rocknroll.

I met the amazing woman she means all the world to me in her eyes I saw our futur she opened my mind to see shes my serenety.

And she said:
to be or not to be ...

Somewhere, sometime
just look inside
you are the life-line somehow, time flies
it feels so good to cry baby cry.

Its as easy as one, two, three thats my philosophy.

And I said:
to be or not to be ...
