

Ringo Starr, Imagine Me There

When the curtains move in breezes unexpected
dont you worry
you well always be protected.

Imagine me there
when you see the dancing shadows in the moonlight
you will always have my love to make it alright.

Imagine me there
let the dawn break
without heartache
all our lives
imagine
never lonely
dream and Ill be
by your side
imagine
trust in love and love is everywhere
imagine me there.

When the next room
feels as far away as China you can always know, for sure my love will find you.

Imagine me there ...

Sometimes life can be a fragile occupation
when I think myself in frantic situations I imagine you there so imagine me there
imagine me there.
