

Rio Klein, Fearless

Dive into the open
Feel you on my lips
Silence a rainbow
You're on my fingertips
Fly fearless...

Follow, I see you holding the sky out to me
Follow, you lead my heart to the warmth of summer
Follow, I see you holding the sky out to me
Follow, you lead my heart to the warmth of summer

Lean into your swaying
No armor, surrender me
Coat me in your pollen
I'll grow from underneath

Leave the day, behind
In the night sky we will find
Your world, and mine
As we paint our place in time
We'll fly fearless...

Follow, I see you holding the sky out to me
Follow, you lead my heart to the warmth of summer
Follow, I see you holding the sky out to me
Follow, you lead my heart to the warmth of summer
