

Ripper, Returned To Death Row

Alright! Let's go!

One sentence done and another begins
One life wasted for another man's sins
Alone in my cell, behind concrete & wired fence
Praying, to prove my innocence

Sanctioned killers, killers hold my fate
This is their system
Now I lay in wait
Sanctioned killers, killers hold my fate
Await my execution date
My return, RETURN TO DEATH ROW

RETURN TO DEATH ROW
They want my eyes closed as the needles pinching
They justify their legal lynching
Pure hypocrisy
No good will in their hearts
No clemency, No clemency on their part

Sanctioned killers, killers hold my fate
This is their system
Now I lay in wait
Sanctioned killers, killers hold my fate
Await my execution date
My return, RETURN TO DEATH ROW

Outside these bars, they're no better in my view
The condemn the killing but commit the killing too
All is fair to the ones with no conscience
Always breaking their own commandments

The gates open slow
This is my return, TO DEATH ROW

Sanctioned killers, killers hold my fate
This is their system
Now I lay in wait
Sanctioned killers, killers hold my fate
Await my execution date
