Save me from the darkness.
Said a sad VOICE I heard.
I'm in the hell
I'm in the fate
If we embrace each other, I'll freeze onto you

I'm break out (x4)

Who do I not believe in? But if the one who wants to help
Doesn't see the color of sins, then she only knows that she can go back

Wait The door is inviting my chest
Destiny changes the present me-

Your passion that dives into my heart is the key
Save me from the darkness.
It was my shout
Within my hallucination like I can even choose a different life
Is it a dream that will be healed?
I waver; BRAVIN' MY HEART

I'm break out (x4)

To the end, I wished that if it's unblemished, then it's innocent

If I can't save my fragility even when I'm strong

At least return beautifully
Pray for your next world and become the brilliance

The me who I performed dissolved before I knew it
I don't exist?
The Wings of madness soar up
Right after my repeated tears dry, inevitability cries out
Catch me with your hands
Together, BRAVIN' BAD BREW

I'm break out (x9)

Our clasped palms grow hot
Please stay that way forever

Your passion that dives into my heart is the key
Save me from the darkness.
It was my shout
Within my hallucination like I can even choose a different life
Is it a dream that will be healed?
I'll invite you; BRAVIN' MY HEART
Catch me with your hands
I waver; BRAVIN' MY HEART
