

Rise Against, Sometimes Selling Out Is Giving Up

trying to make a difference but where the fuck did you go wrong?
lying to all the names and faces that have been there all along how can you ask me to just forget?
all the sick lines
and the words you said
how can you ask me to just forget?
deny the promises you've made the things you said that you hold dear
behind your empty words you hide and wait until that you fall in the clear
how can you ask me to just forget?
how can you ask me to just forget?
just don't ask me to just forget
