

Rita Ora, You Only Love Me

Rita, it's me

I'm outside your house again, freezing in the cold
Waiting for the moment I learn to let go
I've been messed up a thousand times with tears in my eyes
But all the pain, it fades away, when you say it right

I try, I try, and I try
To tell myself it's alright
'Cause I'm terrified

You only love me when
The whiskey's pouring
It's four in the morning
You only love, you only love
You only love me when the
Night is over
No one to hold ya
You only love, you only love
You only love me when the

You only love me when the
You only love me when the

I can't believe you look at me the way I look at you
'Cause no one's ever loved me back the way that you do do
I've been messed up a thousand times, but you make it right
And even on my darkest days, you show me the light

I try, I try, and I try
To tell myself it's alright
'Cause I'm terrified

You only love me when
The whiskey's pouring
It's four in the morning
You only love, you only love
You only love me when the
Night is over (Yeah, yeah)
No one to hold ya (Oh)
You only love, you only love
You only love me when the

(Ah, yeah)
You only love me when the
(Oh, yeah, uh, oh)

You only love me when
The whiskey's pouring
It's four in the morning
You only love, you only love
You only love me when the
Night is over
No one to hold ya (Yeah, yeah)
You only love, you only love
You only love me when the

That's how I am, and that's how you were
