

Rita Pax (Paulina Przybysz), Dead Bleeding Pride

You should have mentioned that you NEED me
You should have mentioned that you can't imagine you future days without me
That would have help
And, I shouldn't make decisions angry
I should have listened to your words
And was so mad
And you draw away
Away

And now you passes all this houses
On this happy yellow lights
They have this crunchy chocolate COOKIES
And through those fence you see that smile
I know that you are not lonely at all
That should have cover THE curtness
I will call let them know
I will call let them to SHUTthe doors
To SHUT the windows
