

Rita Redshoes, The Beginning Song

You came to this world
To see what I've done
And it's fine
So come and let's start
I'll give you all my heart
This time

Don't walk away
'Cause, baby, I will love you more
I have this feeling
You're who I've been looking for
So close your eyes and read the signs
It's time to soar

You came to this world
To change what I've done
It's alright
But now you must dare
You can't pretend you're there
If you're mine

Don't walk away
'Cause, baby, I will love you more
I have this feeling
You're who I've been looking for
So close your eyes and read the signs
It's time to soar

Don't walk away
'Cause, baby, I will love you more
I have this feeling
You're who I've been looking for
Don't turn away, it's time to stay
There's nothing more.
