

River City Rebels, Day To Day

there it goes
another day gone by they're slipping through my hands like falling sinners to the valley of the faithfully departed it all started as a boy i knew there was nothin here for me until i realized the existence of my one true calling

[Chorus]
day to day
verse to chorus
day to day
music's for us
day to day
my frustration
day to day
my salvation

here we are
we've got our backs against a wall that they created now we're jaded
so in order to restore our innocence we'll build a fence around our hearts made up of hope and then we'll pray that today's the day we take our music to a higher level.

[Repeat chorus]
