

River Phoenix, Until Now

Until now, I've been blind.
Until now, I've been wasting time.
I've been lost on streets of plenty.
I've been tossed on icy seas.
And all I've crossed, ain't worth a quarter.
It's muddy water, until now.

There's a light that shines forever,
There's a light that shines for me.
There's a light, my footsteps guiding.
For I've been hiding, until now.
