

Rivermaya, Flowers

someone's gone away forever someone's gone away too soon did they take you up to heaven or did they take you to the moon nobody answers all your question but you gazes to the sky maybe someday when you're all grown up you'll join them in their lies and just before you turns away you'll craft a little smile someday i will take these flowers to the sky

did they take her up to heaven

nobody answers all her questions but she gazes to the sky maybe someday when she's all grown up she'll join them in their lies and just before she turns away she'll craft a little smile someday i will take these flowers to the sky
