

Rivermaya, If

If i could choose to live my life
there'll be no if's to say If i would choose to hold your hand there'll be no words to say

Without thought
Without pride
leave the things that seem to weaken us Without fear
With your lies
let the magic turn your life around ohhhh round

If i would choose to touch you there Would you touch me there too if you would choose to stay with me i'll spend my life with you

Without thought
Without pride
Leave the things that seem to weaken us
without fear
leave your lies
let the magic turn your life around

ohhh round
ohh round.....
oh yeah.....

If i could choose to live my life
there'll be no if's to say
If i would choose to hold your hand there'll be no words....be no words

Without thought
Without pride
Leave the things that seem to weaken us
without fear
leave your lies
let the magic turn your life around

ohhh round
ohh round.....
oh yeah.....
