

Riverside, Embryonic

In a mood like this
Don't want to pull away from you
Don't want to hurt you
Shutting you out
Or pushing you away
In the mood like this
I want someplace that is just mine
And nobody else's
Just mine

Complete indifference
TV life instead of talk
We're drifting apart
Lipreading
And so distant now
I miss what we had
I miss someplace that was just mine
And nobody else's
Just mine

Place for me to hide
Inside of me

For you
I will be
For you
I will escape again
Wish to see in your eyes
That you want us back

That there's hope for us
