

Riverside, I'm Done With You

So you've always been on my side
You've always been my "friend"
And suddenly you don't like it
That I started doing something else

This is not what you expect
So you feel you have to wake me up
You have to make me aware
Tell me I lost my way

You are not my judge
You are not my God
You are not my own CEO
Why don't you simply shut your mouth
And take your poison from my soul
Far away

Why do you want to tell me what to do?
Who do you think you are?
Do you not realise it's my choice
It's my life

Yeah, draw me a chart, make an action plan
Outline a strategy
Educate me, 'cause I clearly don't understand
And you're so clever

You are not my judge
You are not my God
You are not my own CEO
Why don't you simply shut your mouth
And take your poison from my soul
Far away
Far away

You are not my judge
You are not my God
You are not my own CEO
Why don't you simply shut your mouth
And take your poison from my soul
Far away
Far away
