

Rivets, There's Gotta Be A Clue

Now I know its safe to regret
Now I know its safe to pray
And that anybody fights back
To what steps right in their way
Well, theres no coincidence
Between the lives were looking for
Now I know what comes at last
Now I know whats false or true
And Im sure my life is best
Than the one that lives with you
Well, theres no coincidence
Between the lives were looking for
And the fact is the indecence
Of this fucking war
Theres gotta be a clue [x2]
Cause when the night is dark I just say that
Theres gotta be a clue [x2]
Cause when the night is dark I just say
I dont understand whats bad
I dont understand whats good
Well, sometimes youre really mad
But I still wanna stay with you
Well, theres no coincidence
Between the lives were looking for
Do you wanna dance with me or
Do you wanna walk around
Didnt know you were a real whore
Now I really have no doubt
Well, theres no coincidence
Between the lives were looking for
And the fact is the indecence
Of this fucking war
