

Roachford, River Of Love (Full Intention Vocal)

Allright

If love was water, then you would be my sea
I'm never thirsty, when you are here with me
I've found salvation, from all the pain within
This fallen angel, has suddenly found his wings

Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love

If flame is the passion, then you would be my sun
How can I feel cold, I see a smile is so warm
Holy comunion, is what I have with you
Higher than heaven, is where we're going to

Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love

And my heart just can't let go
Cause you made me flow like a river of love
And you fill my empty soul
Like a river of love
Like a river of love

Like a river of love
Like a river of love
Like a river of love
Like a river of love
Like a river of love Like a river of love
Like a river of love Like a river of love Like a river of love Like a river of love Like a river of love

Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
Baptized in the river of love, in a river of love
You and me, You and me, You and me girl
There's something good going on, weeah yeah
