

ROADHOG, All Hell's Breaking Loose

1.

Running wild, the world is upside down
Merry-go-round'n'round and you can't stop the madness
The path of tears- your ordinary life
You wear your mask, but I can see the sadness

Bridge

Where is your independence?
Why don't you think for yourself?
What is your contribution?
Will you find the final solution?

Chorus

I see through your insincere smile
I see your eyes're dead
I see through your advanced lies-
What sits in your head
Your life is illusion
Your tears aren't real
I know what's inside your soul
One emotion – the fear

2.

Speechless tongue - that's the way you talk
You tried to reach the sun, but even moon is gone
Branded and exiled, mad and furious
You have your cross to bear, your future's not glorious!
