

Rob Halford, One You Love To Hate

You may not like the future
And we're not here to preach t'ya
We'll take you to the killing floor.
You think you want to know me
You think you want to own me
But I have nothing you can buy.

I can break you,
I can raise you,
Bring you to your knees,
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.
You can't fool me,
You can't rule me,
You only wanna hang around
Cause I'm the one you love to hate.

So come on get a load of this
Something you can't afford to miss.
You're just a vulture on my veins.
Your nails won't crucify me,
Got money, but you can't see
Your only future is your past.

I can break you,
I can raise you,
Bring you to your knees
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.

You can't fool me,
You can't rule me,
You only wanna hang around
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.

I can break you.
I can raise you.
Bring you to your knees
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.
You can't fool me.
You can't rule me.
You only wanna hang around
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.

I can break you,
I can raise you,
Bring you to your knees
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.
You can't fool me,
You can't rule me,
You only wanna hang around
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.
The one you love to hate.
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.
The one you love to hate.
'Cause I'm the one you love to hate.
