

Rob Mills, Can't Sleep

I love it when the light
Reflects on
Your beautiful brown eyes
But lately when we fight
It leaves me
So messed up inside

I know your every movement
Every step you take
My heart aches...

COARUS

And now i can't say, that you need me
As much as i need you, can't sleep
Because i can't say, that you need
As much as i need you
I'm not sleeping without you

I guess i'm out of touch
Can't keep up
With all this love and lust
Can't take this anymore
I guess that, you're my only cure
And now i sit here
With your letter by my drawer
Now i'm sure

Repeat COARUS

But these feelings, they keep growing
Stro-o-o-ng

Repeat COARUS x2
