Rob Zombie, Reload

Reload Time To Die Time To Die Time To Die

Silhouetting, complicating
Whom to dare? I do not care
What is form and exploration
Everything is everywhere
Increase time and spin around it
Ready for another day
Power up and memorize it
Snap the mag and blow away.

Reload Time To Die Time To Die Time To Die

Pin Eyed God Get away Pin Eyed God Here to stay, yeah Pin Eyed God Break on you Pin Eyed god Commin' Through

Reload Time To Die Time To Die Time To Die

I rejecting? back and building Where you stare I do not care What is crawling and competing Everything is everywhere Deep inside you get around it Reaching back another day Jump it up and feel the heat You snap the mag and blow away.
