

Robbie Williams, Lost

I wake up, terrifying myself again
Caked in makeup and a little lost
These reactions are relentless
Abandoning the permafrost

Who am I fooling? Well, I got a list
I disappoint them only to exist

I lost my place in life
I lost my point of view
I lost what it is to love
When I lost my faith in you

A walk-up of my masterpiece
To the nothingness greeting me
Everything smells like sympathy

Who am I fooling? Well, I got a list
Much too exhausting only to resist

I lost my place in life
I lost my point of view
I lost what it is to love
When I lost my faith in you
I lost all hope
I lost my point of view
I lost what it is to love
When I lost my faith in you

All my friends say
"Don't give up yet
Might still get there"
But I don't think so

Ooh, impress me (try)
Ooh, impress me (try)

I lost my place in life
I lost my point of view
I lost what it is to love
When I lost my faith in you
I lost all hope
I lost my point of view
I lost what it is to love
When, I lost my faith in you
I lost all hope
When I lost my point of view
I lost what it is to love
When I lost my faith in you
