

Robbie Williams, Nobody Someday (Demo Version)

i'm a gigolo, i'm joseph, i'm a sad lad in song i'm everybody that i know and being known for being wrong and if i'm not mistaken this is my heart breaking i'm the man that threw it all away destiny is calling, telling me to be boring and i don't care anyway, gonna be nobody someday

i'm the demon that you fear i'm the joker, i'm the thief i'm the lonesome cowboy ridin' i'm the indian chief

gotta watch my figure boy, if i get much bigger they'll stick a pin in me and i'll blow away

but i get richer while they take my picture taking my soul away
gonna be nobody someday

i'm a moonlight serenade i'm your bed when you are cold i'm the captain of Titanic i'm the passenger in the hall from the way i'm thinking we'll both be sinking i knew before we sailed away hit the tip of my eagle it's all you saw anyway

gonna be somebody gonna be somebody, la la la
