

Robbie Williams, Rolling Stone

25 and I've come alive
21 was the time to come undone
Doesn't everyone

Very young and very ape
I'm gonna drink and stay up very late
And hate the sun

And though my heart kicks up a fuss
I'm a rolling stone
They say I'm dangerous
But I'm never alone

I know that you're like me
You want your kicks for free
You'll be a rolling stone

Got an A in attitude
Spent money on drugs to suit my mood
I guess I'm just like you

Being young is over-rated
One day I'll be old and understated
But before I'm through....

I'll run naked through the streets
Be a rolling stone

Defiance in defeat, enjoy being alone
I know that you're like me
You want your kicks for free
Be a rolling stone

When we die we'll find out other ways
For getting drunk and throwing it all away
Today is tomorrow and not yesterday
It's all in your head
So get out of your head

And now your heart kicks up a fuss
You're a rolling stone
They say you're dangerous
But you're never alone
I know you're just like me
You want your kicks for free
Be a rolling stone
Be a rolling stone

STONE!
