Robert Calvert, Ejection

There's only one course of action Left for me to take I've tried every switch selection That might control this state I think for my protection I'd better make it straight Into ejection Better tell base, ejection That I think it's a case for ejection Blown into space, ejection Protect my face, ejection

The radar screen's projection Tells me I'm too late To make a course correction I'm about to meet my fate No time for reflection I'd better make it straight Into ejection

Bust through the sky, ejection The air rushing by, ejection It's a case of goodbye, ejection I'm too fast to die Ejection

When a ship meets with destruction The captain stays to drown But no tin contraption Is going to drag me down My reference intersection Tells me that I'm bound For ejection Eight times my weight, ejection Got to escape, ejection Only one move to make, ejection Abandon this crate, ejection
