

Robert Cray, I'm A Good Man

(Robert Cray and Dennis Walker)

I don't mean to brag
But I know I'm a good man
At least I try and understand
When things don't go just like we planned
I'll do anything you want me to
I'll make you happy
If it's the last thing I do and
Oh Darling-Darling
I'm a good man... lovin' you

I don't mean to shout
But I know I'm a good man
I'll always be right there baby
With two strong helping hands
I'll go anywhere to help you through
I'll give you these arms
If you should have the blues

Oh Darling-Darling
I'm a good man... lovin' you
I'm a good man, baby

I'll come and see you in the darkest hours
Any old time of the day
If you need me baby just call me
And you know I'll be on my way

I'll come and see you in the darkest hours
Any old time of the day
If you need me baby just call me
And you know I'll be on my way

I don't mean to laugh
But I know I'm a good man
I'll learn you things you need
I'll give you everything that I can
I'll spend any time I need to prove that
My life's ambition
Is to take care of you
Oh, Darling-Darling
I'm a good man... lovin' you
I'm a good man, baby
I'm a good man... lovin' you
I'm a good man, baby
