

Robert Cray, Never Mattered Much

Like a stone
You can't hurt me

Like that old oaktree
I'm as strong as I could be

Like a clock that moves
But goes nowhere

I know just when it's time for me to leave

So this love affair is all over
And it's all right with me

It's hard to make
Nothing go anywhere

It's never really mattered much to me
Meeeee
It's never really mattered much to me
Meeeee, meeeeee

(Guitar solo)

So this love affair is all over
And it's all right with me

You just can't make
Nothing go anywhere

I've made up my mind
It's time for me to leave

It's never really mattered much to me
Meeee
It's never really mattered much to me
Meeee, meeeeee
