

Robert Grenier, Braindead

Laying here by myself
Same old story again
I haven't seen you in awhile
I haven't got many friends
But I know what I want
I might not get it today
And that is my own fault
It's why I say

Every day I'm one step closer
I don't know where I'm going
I hope I like it there
I wander without knowing
But I know what I want
I might not get it today
And that is my own fault
It's why I say

I'm braindead
Braindead
I must be out of my head x2

I'm braindead x4
