

Robert Grenier, Ripperfish

Ripperfish
I remember them well
They took the stage
It was more than I could tell
They played so loud
I could hardly understand
All I knew is
They were the greatest band

Ripperfish
Never wanted any fame
They just wanted
To spread the Savior's name
Because of this
No one in the press would talk
It is too bad
Cuz they missed some holy rock

And I remember their sign x4
