

Robert Kramer, Legacy Of Love

Everytime we say a prayer
Everytime we cry
Everytime we raise our voice, in anger or in joy
There's a signal going out
To the heavens above
What we make is all what we're made of, made of, made of

What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love

Everyone we ever knew
And everyone we'll know
We will leave a part of us
Behind for them to share
If in darkness or in light
What we give them will grow
What we reap is what they all will sow, will sow, will sow

What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love

Reach our hearts, and touch the stars
What we all share will all be ours
Forever and ever and ever and ever

What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
What we leave behind is the Legacy Of Love
