But if you gimme your love
I'll come and get it
Just gimme your touch you wont forget it cause I'm your super bomb when you feel this rush you feel it all night, all night
but if you gimme your love
Just gimme your touch

There is a riot coming on the streets tonight there is a million ways to die and the rain is going fall on this town and the bad boones coming out, yeah
