

Robert Palmer, Can We Still Be Friends ?

We want the best of both worlds
we want it slow and hot.
We like to taste revenge
yeah
but we can't waste the shot.
We like to see from both sides
we like it cool and fast we want to get it over
we like to make it last.
Keep it on.
Getting closer
the best of both worlds.
Double fun
we'll make the most
girl
to get the best of both worlds
we must obey the law -
What good's a place to stand up without a place to fall ?
Two and one
fast and slow
yeah the best of both worlds.
Double fun.
I'd like to now propose a toast to the best of both worlds.

I think about the war that is no fight at all.
I think about the peace.
That is a fight for all the best of both worlds.
Tight as a drum
loose as a gun-holster
keep it on fast and slow
girl
best of both worlds
yeah it's getting closer.
why do we waste our breath
child
on what we like the most ?
seeing as we've wound up here
we ought to do them both.
Back and forth
we get the most
yeah the best of both worlds.
South and north
I'd like to now propose a toast to the best of both worlds.
