

Robert Plant, Memory Song (Hello, Hello)

On my mind - all my talk
From the lips of so many memory songs
Prince of cool - are you lost without a crew?
Stars still shine - winds will howl
All my friends sense you now

On my mind - all my talk
From the lips of so many memory songs
Prince of cool - are you lost without the crew?
Beneath divided, we had our day
But hell provideth, I'm sad to say

Hello, hello, hello
I saw you once before
In my dreams you've come to call
You are my friend, you are my friend
You touch my soul

You touch my soul
Hello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello
