Robert Plant, The Way I Feel

See what I'm driving at and I'm back behind the wheel Just a little nervous - it's something to do with the way I feel With the way I feel, with the way I feel Trouble understanding - nothing too out of hand A little overloaded - some kinda storm in the heart of the man Oh - in the heart of the man I must have heard it somewhere I can't quite remember

Look what I've turned into and I'm back inside the car We travelled in luxury - a little celebration went a touch too far Just a touch too far, just a touch too far I must have passed it somewhere Now I can't quite remember But here it comes again

The mirror tries to please me - the image wouldn't stay The stranger is too perfect to take my breath away The future rides beside me - tomorrow in his hand The stranger turns to greet me and take me by the hand

Look what I've turned into, and I'm back inside the car We travelled in luxury - a little celebration went a touch too far Just a touch too far, just a touch It something to do with the way I feel, with the way I feel

The mirror tries to please me [etc repeated]
