

Robert Pollard, Slick As Snails

Be drawn to what's wrong and believe everyone go ahead touch your nose & off you go up and run

And now comes yet another the next dose of real freedom I guess the wait is over you sat here long enough your personal triumph is coming up

Piss away again throwing caution to the wind telling lies to friends

Be strong in your aim map your course and set sail but know well life is quick and very slick slick as snails

I contemplate an ocean at rest or still in motion a testimonial quest gorilla of your dreams and speedy exit schemes in "Quips for Queens";

The imprint where you sat dig the ripples caused by that I can ride them cut out into the sea where the others cannot be you keep sliding out crafted, launched and steered to where all systems are cleared you'll be hiding out
