

Robi Rosa, Mad Love

And though I try to reach you
And time is closing in on me
Most of us carry on
as of nothing ever matters.
But I ask you my love,
will you hold on to me forever.

When you're loving me I'm fine
So love me just one more time
'Cause when I said I love you,
that's forever.

Do you remember when
sunrise ment,
there we should close our eyes.
And words were just obstacles
between our hellos and our good-byes.
And I was your savior,
and you were my queen.
And love was the answer
to just about everything.

But when you're loving me I'm fine
So love me just one more time
'Cause when I said I love you,
that's forever.

But can you take me,
take me,from this hallow place.
Can you hold me,hold me,
and take away this pain.
I'll always remember the part when you'll always remind me of all possibilities.
And maybe you and me
will reform,read through and find a way of love.

When you're loving me I'm fine
So love me just one more time
'Cause when I said I love you,
that's forever.

And I try to reach you.
Do you remember my...my touch,
like old friends.
And I smiled at you,
and we both start laughing.
Now I'm a man of fortune,
I'm a man thats free.
But life without you
is true poverty
I'm a man of promise,
my faith aside,lets save ourselves,
and stay alive.

Now,do you remember the first time,when I smiled at you and we both started laughing.
Yea I said I'm a man of fortune,
I'm a man thats free.
But life without you
it keeps haunting me.
