

Robin Beck, Save Up All Your Tears

I can't figure you out
But a hard must be the one thing you were born without I've been wasting my time
I don't know where I'll sleep tonight

You say that you can do without me Go ahead now and try and live without me

Baby save up all your tears
You might need them some day
When the tears start to fall
I won't wipe them away
When you cry in the night
All the love that you need Baby save up your tears
'Cause you'll be crying over me

You got used to my touch I got used to not feeling much Winters set in your eyes
Time will melt your castle of ice
You think that you won't feel the rain now Your eyes will be crying like the rain now

You don't know it now

Some wounds get deeper with time
You don't feel it now Til the need burns, a knife turns
Your heart bleeds like mine
