

Robin Schulz, Die For You

I could die for you, I could die for you

Hey, there's a fire in your eyes
Like an endless lullaby
We are rising higher
Underneath the purple sky
Before we kill the lights
I'll be by your side

When we dive into the ocean
Sinking deep into the blue
I see your colors in slow motion
I could die for you, I could die for you

I'd take a bullet for you, I'll be there to hold you
Could die for you, I could die for you
When you need a savior, I'll be there to save you
Could die for you, I could die for you

Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Could die for you, I could die for you
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Could die for you, I could die for you
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Could die for you, I could die for you
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Could die for you, I could die for you

Young love that can't be tamed
We let the darkness fade
Found a secret haven
When your world is turning grey
I'll take your pain away
Brighten up your day

When we dive into the ocean
Sinking deep into the blue
I see your colors in slow motion
I could die for you, I could die for you

I'd take a bullet for you, I'll be there to hold you
Could die for you, I could die for you
When you need a savior, I'll be there to save you
Could die for you, I could die for you

Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Could die for you, I could die for you
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Could die for you, I could die for you
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Could die for you, I could die for you
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Could die for you, I could die for you
