

Robin Schulz, No Drama

You're seeing all these people?
It's bigger than the bank, yo
Steady counting commas
And they don't want no drama

They don't want no drama, they don't want no drama
They don't want no drama, they don't want no drama
They don't want no drama, they don't want no drama
They don't want no drama

You're seeing all these people?
It's bigger than the bank, yo
Steady counting commas
And they don't want no drama

You're seeing all these people?
It's bigger than the bank, yo
Steady counting commas
And they don't want no drama

They don't want no drama, they don't want no drama
They don't want no drama, they don't want no drama
They don't want no drama, they don't want no drama
They don't want no drama

You're seeing all these people?
It's bigger than the bank, yo
Steady counting commas
And they don't want no drama

People, people
People, they don't want no drama
People, people
People, they don't want no drama
People, people
People, they don't want no drama
People, people
People, they don't want no drama
