

Robin Schulz, On Repeat

Live the life you wanna lead
Spend the same day on repeat
On repeat, on repeat, on repeat, on repeat
Isolate yourself from me
Spend the same day on repeat
On repeat, on repeat, on repeat, on repeat

Keep on floating through a dream
If this is who you wanna be
Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Trying to serve, afraid to see
On the run from something real
Something real, something real

On repeat

On repeat

On repeat

On repeat

But it's you again
Was always wondering where to begin
But it's you again
Was always wondering where to begin

Live the life you wanna lead
Spend the same day on repeat
On repeat, on repeat, on repeat, on repeat
Isolate yourself from me
Spend the same day on repeat
On repeat, on repeat, on repeat, on repeat

On repeat

Live the life you wanna lead
Spend the same day on repeat
On repeat, on repeat, on repeat, on repeat
Isolate yourself from me
Spend the same day on repeat
On repeat, on repeat, on repeat, on repeat

Keep on floating through a dream
If this is who you wanna be
Wanna be, wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Trying to serve, afraid to see
On the run from something real
Something real, something real

On repeat
