

Robin Trower, I Can't Wait Much Longer

There beneath the diamond sky caviar and the moon light wine she has'nt yet made up her mind if she'll take me

See my love it's stoned indeed got my future at your feet baby the simple life -----!
you can take me

And every day gets stronger
everyday it grows and grows
I can't wait much longer

Round and round in dreams I go set me free baby or tie the bow up or down let me know
!!! oh dont ignore me !!!

And everyday gets stronger
and everyday it grows and grows
I can't wait much longer

Get my coat and I'll catch the train make my way down to new orleans tryin to save -----!
oh to console me

And everyday gets stronger
I can't wait much longer

I can't wait much longer
