

Robin Williams, I Ran Over The Taco Bell Dog

I was driving around in old Mexico
I got lost and didn't know which way to go
I was confused, it was late, and I was in a fog
I ran over the Taco Bell dog

I felt that smush and I said oh mama
My lowrider crushed that little chihuahua
I prayed for forgiveness in a sinigouge
I ran over the Taco Bell dog

If I am caught they will put me in a cell with 20 locks
Unless I can pin it on Jack in the Box
I'll be whipped then beaten and then I'll be flogged
I ran over the Taco Bell dog

His last words were yo quiero el Mexico
I flattened that pup to hell I will go
I should of skipped driving and gone for a jog
I ran over the Taco Bell dog
I ran over the Taco Bell dog
I ran over the Taco Bell dog
