

Robyn, Say You'll Walk The Distance

I can still see your face
But I still can't explain
You were there so suddenly
And as you walked away from me
I knew that we were meant to be
Holding on to my hope,
But I just gotta know...
Will you do what it takes?
From the mountains to the sea
Cross the miles of memories
Through the endless dark
Say you'll walk the distance to my heart
Pass the walls of fear and pride
To a place where love can't hide
Searching for a spark
Say you'll walk the distance to my heart
Maybe times we lose track
And we have to fight our way back
But even more than before we know what we're reaching for You're my date with destiny
What ever goes wrong
Gotta keep holding on
Gotta do what it takes...
Will you do what it takes?
From the mountains to the sea
Cross the miles of memories
Through the endless dark
Say you'll walk the distance to my heart
Pass the walls of fear and pride
To a place where love can't hide
Searching for a spark
Say you'll walk the distance to my heart (2x)
Say you'll walk the distance (6x)
I can still see your face
Like an angel in time and place
Gotta turn every stone
Gotta take every road
Gotta keep holding on
Gotta do what it takes...
Will you do what it takes?
From the mountains to the sea
Cross the miles of memories
Through the endless dark
Say you'll walk the distance to my heart
Pass the walls of fear and pride
To a place where love can't hide
Searching for a spark
Say you'll walk the distance to my heart
Ooooh...say you'll walk the distance to my heart
