

Roc Project Feat. Tina Arena, Never

I cant be with you again
Dont remind me of the good times that we had Learned a lot from us since then
And I never want these feeling to ever come again
No, no
Youll never hear me crying
Youll never see me trying
To love you once again
Your love is so past tense
Please dont tell me that you changed
Dont wanna hear of how youve lost your evil ways
One has changed this time its real
And I wont go back to feeling helpless and deceived
Youll never hear me crying
Youll never see me trying
To love you once again
Your love is so past tense
Youll never hear me crying
Youll never see me trying
To love you once again
Your love is so past tense
Your love...
Your love...
To think you have me
Fooled every now and then
You had me believin`
That i was the reason
That you left
But i won`t fall back
In love with you again
I don`t even wanna be
I don`t even wanna be
Your friend
No, no, no
Youll never hear me crying
Youll never see me trying
To love you once again
Your love is so past tense
Youll never hear me crying
Youll never see me trying
To love you once again
Your love is so past tense
Youll never hear me crying
Youll never see me trying
To love you once again
Your love is so past tense
