

Roch Voisine, With These Eyes

With these eyes
I've held you in my arms
And love was all I had
But you had to end it all
With these eyes
I've stood out in the rain
I've listened for your call
That never came at all

With these eyes you're everything to me
Without your love I'd wind up down upon my knees
With these eyes I've learned from my mistakes
That a sad song doesn't care whose heart it breaks

With these eyes
I'm feeling out of touch
I've waited patiently for you whose love i miss so much
With these eyes
I've watched you turn away with nothing left to give and nothing more to say

With these eyes you're everything to me
Without your love I'd wind up down upon my knees
With these eyes I've learned from my mistakes
That a sad song doesn't care whose heart it breaks

And though my love for you runs so deep it doesn't mean that you and I are sharing the same dream
If only i could listen to your words and not my heart you're trying to spare my feelings but you're tearing me appart

With these eyes you're everything to me
Without your love I'd wind up down upon my knees
With these eyes I've learned from my mistakes
That a sad song doesn't care whose heart it breaks

That a sad song doesn't care whose heart it breaks
