

Rock N Roll Worship Circus, Morning Glory

wake up you people, wake up all you saints the time is now for giving glory to His name until He comes wake up you sinners, fall upon your face the blood of Jesus will wash you sins away before He comes and we all say...

waked me up this morning as i stumbled out of bed i had a soft imagination and new song in my head and it's alright no songs of entertainment or mellow tragedy this is a song of revolution so that everyone can see that it's alright
and we all say...

wake up you drummers, wake up those who praise with psalms of thunder giving glory to His name until He comes wake up you dancers, dance the days away
the time is coming when we'll forever praise... the King has come...
and we all say...

wake up you people,
we'll forever praise
