

Rockell, Tears

Rockell - Tears

so when were you planning to tell me when did you know it for sure that you didn't want my love that you didn't need me anymore did you promise to love her forever did you tell her how happy she would'nt be did she believe all the lies did you tell her about me

tears are all that she has now now that she has you you're gonna feel the pain someday
when it comes back to you will you remember tomorrow how will you sleep tonight knowing how you hurt that what your doing isn't right are you leading her on with your kisses or words of what could be leaving a flower so, she could fall for all to see

now that she has you (now that she has you)
you're gonna feel the pain someday

you're gonna feel the pain someday

the tears, the tears are falling but your time i know is coming what you do today
will come back and you will see what it feels to be in tears

you're gonna feel the pain someday

you're gonna feel the pain someday

you're gonna feel the pain someday
