

Rocky Votolato, Blood In Your Eyes

It's what I said at the time
"This, I know I'm not blind"
Maybe I am
'Cause I never saw the blood in your eyes
A thousand times
Life sentence should be served for that crime

And it's a hard lesson in fixin' what's not broken
Maybe I'm all that's broken
Wish I'd had known that in time
Surely, you don't owe me a thing
But you know that better than me

Lightin' one with the end of another
It just doesn't get much better
I swear to god I saw the northern sky get brighter

And it's a hard lesson in fixin' what's not broken
Maybe I'm what's broken
Shoulda seen that in time
Surely, you don't owe me a thing
But you know that better than me

It's what I said at the time
"How could I be so fking blind?"
